Description

Apivest is a beekeeping association promoting quality in bee products.

We take our inspiration from the rich history of beekeeping, and also promote it among youngsters. Our main goal is to deliver the best quality to the client, therefore part of our offer contains bio assortments of honey. Our honey, pollen, propolis and Royal Jelly are very important to be included as part of the day to day diet, tailored by the bees to increase the vitality, health and decrease the illness risks in everyone, especially kids.

Apivest promise is to handle our bees with love, care and respect so that we can give you the sweet ingredients for a healthy life.
